A is for Arrr! A Pirate Alphabet
By Laura Purdie Salas

E
Sa31

Help your children learn their alphabet and some fun facts about pirates! This book is bound to inspire children to add a few colorful words to their vocabulary such as "Arrr", "Land Ho", and "Yo Ho Ho". With colorful pictures and new pirate words, this book presents the ABCs in a fun way!

NEWSLETTER July 2010

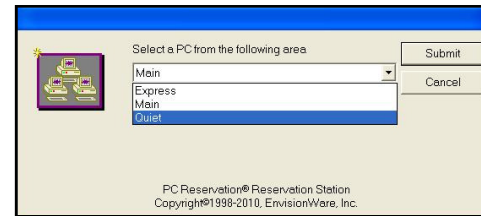

Summer Reading Program

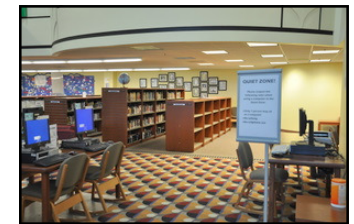

The Summer Reading Program (June 1 - July 31) will include Craft Mondays (1-2:30), Friday and Saturday movies, and programs (watercolor, needlepoint, cookie decorating, photo albums, and technology). The program is geared for children (kindergarten through 8th grade), however there are activities for pre-schoolers as well. Everyone is welcome at the Summer Reading Program's Closing Celebration on July 31st (2:00-4:00) for balloon twisters, games, and fun!

"Quiet Zone" for Computer Users

For computer users looking for a quiet area, the Library has three computers for that purpose. PC 5, PC 6, and the Business Computer are now quiet computers. When using these computers: only one person may sit at the computer, no talking, and no cell phone use. These quiet computers may be selected at the sign-in kiosk.
