NEWSLETTER January 2011

eReaders Available for Check-Out

The Friends of the West Fargo Public Library donated funds to purchase three Barnes & Noble Nooks and two Sony Reader Touch Edition eReaders for patrons to check-out. These readers can be checked out for three weeks. The Nooks are available now, and the Sony Readers will be available later this month.

Self-Check Coming This Month

Patrons will soon be able to check out their own items! In early January, the Library will install a self-check unit where patrons will be able to check-out their items and see if they have unpaid fines without coming to the Service Desk.

“Thank You” to Everyone Who Donated to the Mitten Tree!

We collected many pairs of mittens and hats for West Fargo school children!

Lockers for Patron Use

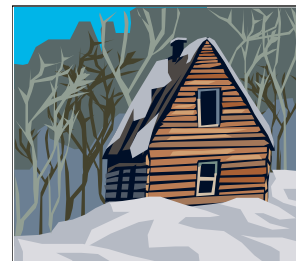

Need a place to store your coat, bag, or other items while you're at the Library? Starting in January, patrons can check-out a locker to safely store their items. Ask a staff member at the Service Desk for details.

Book Return Has Been Installed at Eagle Run

A book return has been installed at Eagle Run, between Frontier Pharmacy and Edward Jones. Beginning January 1st, Residents in the southern end of the city will be able to drop off books, DVDs, CDs, and other items a little closer to home.

Holiday Closings

The Library will be closed December 31 (Friday) and January 1 (Saturday) for the New Year's holiday.
