Josiah for President, A Novel
Martha Bolton

F
B639

When Congressman Mark Stedman bows out of the Presidential race, he thinks his life in politics is over, until he meets Josiah Stoltzfus, an Amish farmer and America's best hope for an honest President. But will Josiah risk his standing in the Amish community (which will likely result in his shunning) and enter the political arena known for negative ads, slurs, and compromise? This is a delightful, light-hearted story sure to give readers hope for the next Presidential election.

Photoshop Elements 11 on Public Laptops

Photoshop Elements 11 is now available on the Library's public laptops thanks to a grant from the North Dakota State Library and a software donation from TechSoup. TechSoup, a non-profit organization, makes technologies available to non-profits, charities and libraries at a discounted price. The Library's laptops are available to West Fargo Public Library cardholders who are 18 or older, have had a West Fargo Public Library card for at least three months, have no outstanding overdue items or fines, and the address on their Library account matches the address on their photo ID. Come in and give Photoshop Elements 11 a try!

New Library Board Members Welcomed at June Meeting

Two incoming members of the West Fargo Public Library Board of Directors met with the current Board for the first time at the June 13 meeting. Doug Leier and Karla Knutson will begin their three-year terms at the July Board meeting. They are filling vacancies left by Larry Schwartz and Leighan Aker-Monson, who have both completed two terms on the Board. Welcome to our new members and many thanks to Leighan and Larry for their years of dedicated service!
