Reader's Corner

Circus Mirandus by Cassie Beasley

Micah grew up hearing wonderful stories of the magical Circus Mirandus from his grandpa Ephraim. Bonding Micah and Ephraim were enchanting accounts of the flying birdwoman, the tiger guarding the gates, and (most impressively) the Man Who Bends Light. When his grandpa gets sick, Micah and his friend Jenny set out on a journey to find the Circus and the man they believe will save his grandpa Ephraim. Will they find the Circus? Will Micah get the miracle he hopes will save his grandpa? Find out in this heart-warming journey, celebrating the magic in the world around you!

Homework Help

Students, now that school is in full swing, remember the Library has lots of tools to help you throughout the school year. The Homework Center provides supervised homework help Monday through Thursday from 3-5 p.m. when school is in session. In Tutor ND you'll find free online help from a live tutor as well as The SkillsCenter Resource Library that has homework help, test preparation and career resources. If you're preparing for college, you'll find plenty of study aids for the SAT and ACT on Learning Express. Tutor ND and Learning Express can be found in our 'Virtual Library'.

Rearranging!

Things have been moving at the library! Due to building weight restrictions, the West Fargo Historical Center has been moved into the former Teen area on the lower level of the library. The Teen collection is now located upstairs next to the elevator. In order to provide additional seating, the Meeting Room will be available for public use as an informal "Community Room" most days from 10-3 p.m. Please ask staff if you need help finding anything.
