

Friends of the Library
November 20, 2008

The Friends of the West Fargo Public Library met on Thursday, November 20, 2008 at 7:00 p.m. Attending were Pam Rezac, Sandra Hannahs, Carrie Scarr, and Ann Chale. The minutes of the previous meeting were read and approved. The latest FOL bank balance reported on November 5, by treasurer, Mike Nesemeier, was $4,419.51. Several expenses have been paid since that date.

Heather Hager has asked to be replaced as president. Pam Rezac, as vice-president has agreed to assume the duties. It was decided that Pam, as president should have her name added to the signatures on the FOL bank account.

The October book sale was a success and the total from sales and memberships was reported by Sandra as $1213.71.

FOL has decided to choose the children's section of the library to focus on for our first project of the year. We will be purchasing 12 child size chairs of various colors and some new activities for the children's activity center. We are also looking for members interested in volunteering to help maintain the children's section. Pam suggested that we dedicate our project in Miriam Arves's name in recognition of her many years of working with the children's activities in the library.

Our next book sale will be held Tuesday, November 25 from 4:00-8:00 p.m. Ann will look for members to help with the sale and Pam will create a flyer to distribute on our project.

Carrie Scarr shared a booktalk on Debbie Macomber's "A Cedar Cove Christmas."

A January meeting will be scheduled at a late date. The meeting was adjourned.

Secretary,
Ann Chale
